Our Mission

The CONSIDER project aims at enhancing the quality of adult training services through cultivating a culture of inclusion in adult learning organisations at a managerial and training level.

Our mission and objectives are to:

- Support adult learning organisations for becoming more inclusive.
- Facilitate the access of adult education for disadvantaged members of society.
- Promote inclusion and active engagement of all learners in adult education.

The Outputs

Through this project we will create:

A Quality framework for inclusion of adult learning organisations.

Assessment tools for inclusion such as a self-assessment tool for managers and training institutions that evaluate their inclusion practices and a self-assessment tool for the use of trainers.

E-learning courses for "Promoting inclusion in adult learning organisations" and for "Inclusive adult learning methods and practices».
